Aloha!

You are invited to apply to be a part of the 'Aha 'Ōpio (youth delegation) in our upcoming Hō'ea Ea – Return to Freedom, Food Sovereignty 2007 conference to be held in Hawai'i, Moku O Keawe on June 14th-17th, 2007! Hawai'i, Moku O Keawe is gathering a collaborative of food communities, especially our youth, from Kaua'i to Hawai'i Island to actively explore, develop, and nurture 'hō'ea ea' - a spiritual, physical, and cognitive pathway toward self-sufficiency and food sovereignty.

If selected to be a part of the 'Aha 'Ōpio, you will be expected to play a very active role in this conference! Thus, for all teams, please send one chaperone and four of your most involved and engaged youth. Mentally and spiritually prepare yourself/yourselves for a very intense and interactive experience including an early morning hi'uwai and leadership-building activities on Pre-Conference Day (June 14th), full immersion into cultural learning sites around the island, and workshop and plenary sessions at UH-Hilo. These activities will require active participation in the learning and networking process. They will also give you the opportunity to meet lots of young people and to have lots of fun!

We will be booking your airline tickets ahead of time so please plan on arriving in Hilo on the evening of June 13th (Wednesday) and leaving Hilo on the afternoon of June 17th (Sunday). All lodging, airfare and meal costs will be covered in full. Registration may be covered by scholarships on a need basis. This project is being funded by grants from the USDA, Hawai'i County, Hawai'i People's Fund and OHA.

Please fill out all documents listed in the "Youth Participant Registration Checklist" and mail to our office (WCRC, P.O. Box 441, Wai'anae, HI 96792) by May 11th, 2007. If you have any questions, please call our office on O'ahu at 808-696-5569! As representatives of your school/organization and advocates for your island and community, we look forward to your participation and contribution to this conference! Hope to see you soon on Hawai'i Island!

Sincerely,

Summer Shimabukuro
Hō'ea Ea Registration Coordinator

Ho‘ea Ea: Return to Freedom

A Food Sovereignty Conference

Hilo, Moku O Keawe, Hawai‘i, June 14- June 17, 2007

www.handsturnedtothesoil.com

Hawai‘i, Moku O Keawe, is gathering a collaborative of food communities, especially our youth, from Kaua‘i to Hawai‘i Island to actively explore, develop, and nurture ‘hō‘ea ea’, a spiritual, physical, and cognitive pathway toward self-sufficient and food sovereignty. This unique four-day conference will gather youth/students, community members, farmers, professors, scientists, and traditional practitioners from all walks of life, from many disciplines, and a diversity of cultures and experiences that will build our personal and communal relationships with the ‘āina (land) and each other. Hō‘ea Ea will utilize a variety of strategies to gather a community of ‘āina people, to share and exchange good information, and to brainstorm and strategize innovative solutions that perpetuate our ‘āina, people, and culture.
